

Africa - Area Studies

Uthman dan Fodio
Institute
11541 So. Peoria
Chicago, Illinois
60643

Are you interested in knowing more about the origin of Black/African people and their ancient history? If the answer is YES, you may be interested in taking an Afrocentric course at home. The Afrocentric study course is designed to help people become aware of the Afrocentric historical and linguistic experience.

These Distance courses will make students aware of the pluridisciplinary approach to Afrocentric studies used by C.A. Diop and J.A. Rogers.

The Afrocentric independent studies courses can be taken at any time during the year. Each course last between 6 and 9 weeks depending on the amount of readings necessary for understanding specific historical experiences.

This Afrocentric studies program is not a part of any University. These courses are offered on a private basis by Dr. Clyde Winters. NO Grades will be given.

The sole purpose of this learning program is to teach aspects of Afrocentric studies to the interested public. Work completed in this program of study can not be transferred toward a university degree. But you can earn a Certificate of Participation.

The student will be provided with 1) selected articles and readings associated with the course; 2) lectures will be provided via e-mail. Students will be responsible for purchasing the text used in the course and any other Reading material for each course. The student will complete a mid-term and final Questionnaire to determine his/her comprehension of the course matter. This questionnaire will be returned to the instructor via email. Student will email the instructor questions related to each lecture.

the instructor will reply to such to the questions via email.

Satisfactory completion of the 6th or 9th week comprehensive questionnaire leads to the award of the Certificate of Participation.

The aim of these courses are to increase the student's appreciation of Afrocentric historical themes; they cannot improve, enhance, or add to the skills and abilities of the individual relative to occupational responsibilities or career opportunities.

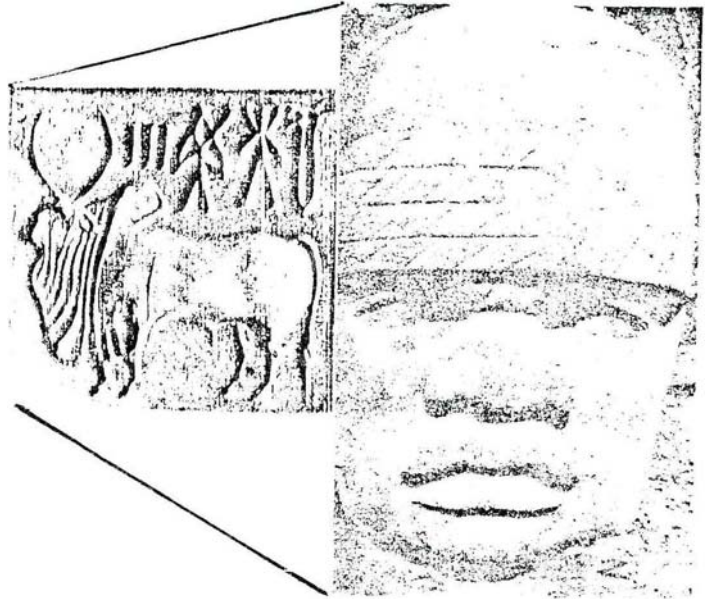

BLACKS IN EUROPE

COURSES This Catalog

201. Blacks in EuroDe Before the EuroDeans

In this course we will discuss the historical, linguistic and anthropological evidence which relates to the presence of Blacks in Europe; and the coming of the Indo-Europeans. Special mention will be made of the 1) migration routes the Blacks took to enter Europe; 2) the presence of Blacks in ancient European myths; and 3) the African origin of the Greek gods.

202. Africa and India.

In this course we will discuss the relationship between Africans and Dravidians in relation to their common origin, genetic linguistic unity, and the reasons behind their outward differences in physical features.

204. Afrocentric Historiography

This course will be concerned with examining the major Afrocentric scholars of the 20th century and their methods of research. The scholars discussed in this course include DuBois, Chacellor Williams, D.D. Houston, G.W. Parker, Diop, Th. Obenga and others.

205. Introduction to Afrocentric Historiography

In this course you will examine the Rise of civilizationsin Africa ,Ameri-ca, Asia and Europe. This survey course deals with the origins of the various Black population in the Sahara , their expansion to other parts of the world.

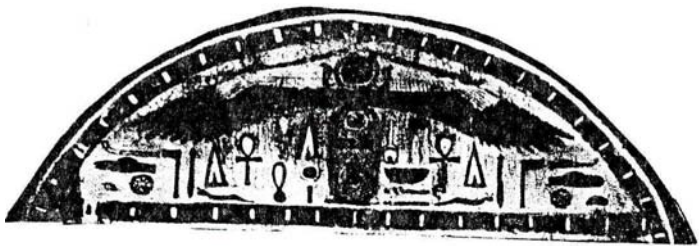

203. History of Blacks in Asia

In this course we will explore the rise of Black empires in ancient China , especially their role in the founding of the Xia and First Shang Empire.

This course will also explore the rise of the Kushite nations of China , their decline and the migration of these Black Chinese onto the Pacific Islands, India, Southeast Asia and Japan.

Far East

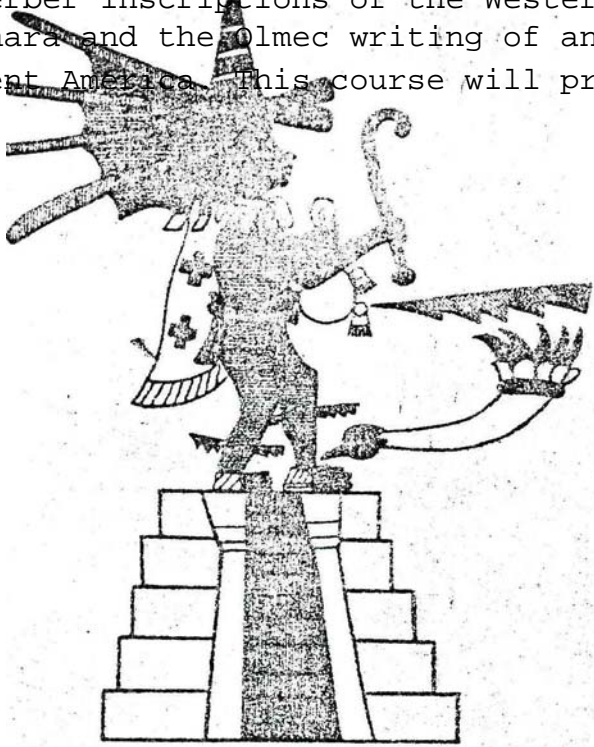

206. Introduction to African Comparative Linguistics

This course will examine the comparative linguistic method in relation to African and Dravidian languages. In this course you will learn the basic comparative linguistic method while discovering aspects of Afro-Indo linguistics and the relationship between African and Egyptian languages.

207. Decipherment of the Manding And Olmec Scripts.

In this course the student will learn how to decipher the Manding script. The Manding script was used to write Minoan Linear A, the Libyco-Berber inscriptions of the Western Sahara and the Olmec writing of ancient America. This course will pro-

Aztec God

-vide the student with knowledge of the grammar and script of the Manding writing systems. The student will also obtain a basic dictionary of the script and methods of reading the symbols.

208. The Decipherment of the Indus Valley writing

In this course the student will discover the Dravidian origin of this script. Students will learn the basic grammar of the Indus Valley writing and method of decipherment. By the end of the course students will be able to read the various Indus Valley seals, and understand aspects of the Harappan religion.

TUITION AND FEES

(See following page)

Application fee: $25.00

Nonrefundable material fee of $100.00

(i.e. ,text and xerox readings)

Tuition: $560.00 per course

A Registration Fee of $50.00

due within two week after notification of acceptance in program. This deposit is credited towards tuition must accompany non-refundable

materials' fee.

Opening Day: $340

Beginning of 4th week of school $200,00

Total Tuition cost: $560.00

Circle the course(s) in which you will register. You may take only two

(2) courses each Quarter.

() 201 () 202 () 203

() 204 () 205 () 206

() 207 () 208

Complete application on following page. Make all' money orders or certified checks payable to Clyde Winters.

Application fee must accompany this application.

Have I Youl:

Signed your completed application?

Enclosed the $25 nonrefundable application processing Fee.

Uthmon dan Fodio Institute

ENROLLMENT CONTRACT

Mail to: 11541 South Peoria
Chicago, Illinois 60643

Last Name	_____	First Name	<input type="text"/>	Middle Initial	_____
Address	<input type="text"/>	State	<input type="text"/>	Telephone	<input type="text"/>
City	<input type="text"/>			Zip Code	<input type="text"/>
Age				Social Security Number	<input type="text"/>

Signature

Date

Tuition Refund Schedule

A student who is given approval to withdraw part or all of his registration shall be granted a reduction of a portion of the original charge in accordance with the following schedule.

FULL REDUCTION of tuition charge (less 10 per cent service charge) end of 1st week of Quarter.

65 per cent reduction of tuition charge end of 3rd week

50 per cent reduction of tuition charge end of 4th week

40 per cent reduction of tuition charge end of 5th week

NO REDUCTION OF TUITION CHARGE is made after Friday; the end of the 5th week of a quarter. The contract is executed on the postmark date of the letter of acceptance and becomes a legally binding instrument subject to the cancellation provisions above. All fees and tuition fees will be refunded by Clyde Winters, if the student gives written notice of cancellation within five business days after the day on which the contract was executed, regardless of whether the course of instruction has started.

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY:

Accepted Rejected

Signature _____

Date _____